

Haoming Huang, Vice-Chairman & Executive Director of China Association for NGO Cooperation (CANGO). He became a senior engineer in 1994. Huang received his Master of Public Policy & Management from Carnegie Mellon University, USA in 1995. He is also an adjunct professor of NGO Research Center, Tsinghua University and adjunct professor of the school of public policy and management, Beijing University of Aeronautics & Astronautics. Other associate position is as follows; member of the board of directors of Asian NGO Coalition for Agrarian Reform and Rural Development (ANGOC); member of the board of directors of China Foundation for Poverty Alleviation; member of the board of directors of China Association of International Trade; member of Western Returned Scholars Association; executive member of Council of China Reform Forum and member of the China National Committee for Pacific Economic Cooperation, Human Resources Development Sub-Committee. He has publications including Strategy planning for Non-profit organization (2003), Cooperation and communication between Chinese and Foreign NGOs (2001), practice and management for international NGOs cooperation (2000).